

Performance Absence Makeup Assignment

A Performance Absence Request form must be filled out, turned in, and signed by choir director prior to turning in a makeup assignment in order to earn makeup points for a missed performance.

Directions:

1. Fill out and turn in Performance Absence Request form prior to a missed performance.
2. Once director has signed Performance Absence Request form (if reason for absence is deemed by director as legitimate excuse), seek a music performance to attend.
3. Attend a musical performance.
4. Self-evaluate your audience etiquette by answering the following questions:
  - i. What I on time?
  - ii. Was I dressed appropriately for this performance?
  - iii. Did I behave appropriately as an audience member? (eg. cell phone use, applause, talking, etc.)
5. Evaluate the musical performance by answering the following questions:
  - i. Who was performing?
  - ii. When did this performance take place?
  - iii. Where did this performance take place?
  - iv. What did I notice about this performance?
  - v. How did I enjoy this performance?
6. Turn in this assignment prior to the missed performance, or in the case of illness, within a week of the missed performance.
